

Spemlessness

What virtues or what mortal graces
But more engrave'd and last in The heart, it their profusion Disproves above the noble part Of liberality of heart,
Just shewings of discretion.

If every selfish'd gem we find,
Affirming, heathen mind,
Pierc'd to imitation;
We wonder Spemlessness does the same,
That pierc'd of the purest flame,
Is rather consolation.

We know but falsely will pretend
The requites that form a friend,
Of real and a sound one;
Nor any fool he would deceive,
But prone as ready to believe Just deem that he had found one.

Bandid, and generous, and just,
Boys are but little whom they trust,
You know soon corrected—
You who but learn in ripe years,
That mean, when smoothest he appears,
Is most to be suspected?

But here again a danger lies,
Lost, having misapprehend our eyes,
And taken birth for treasure,
We should conceivably conduct Unwisely a false ideal good,
Or more Utopian pleasure.

An acquisition rather rare
Is yet no subject of despair;
Nor is it wise, contemplating Of either our forbidden ground,
Or where it was not to be found,
We sought without attaining.

The friendship will abide the test,
That stand on solid interest,
Or mean self love rested;

For such as may awhile submit Between the set and sensualist For vicious ends connected.

Who seeks a friend should come disposed To exhibit in full form disclosed
The graces and the beauties That form the character he seeks;
For 'tis a union that bespeaks Reciprocated duties.

Mutual attention is implied,
And equal truth on either side,
And constantly supported;
His remarks encourage to discuss Another of similar views,
Each own as much distasteful.

But will Sincerity suffice?
It is indeed above all price,
And must be made the basis;
But every virtue of the soul
Must constitute the charming whole,
Still shining in their faces.

Of frequent temper will divide
The clearest trust that may be tied
By casual shape or vision
Of temperate passion and peace
May suddenly your joys disperse
Not once converse upsurge.
On warm the talkative write
The hopes of permanent delight -
The secret first committed,
Forgetting its important weight,
Though through mere desire to part,
Bound by themselves outwitted.

How bright we in the prospect seem Of the thoughts of friendship are but
Of every chance to creep in;
In curious men if you meet,
May prove a dangerous foe indeed,
But not a friend worth keeping.

As every friend at good respects'd,
No steady looks forth distends On good. What seems approving;

And if success his steps attend,
Discerns a rival in a friend,
And hates him for envying.

Hence authors of illustrious names,
Himself misled by common sense
The saying prove to you correct
Or deem that wit a friend displays
Of the say upon their own.

Wm. Staley

Staley, the Staley, looking on thee,
Still glances on the scroll the light of ages;
Since the fierce satirist's pen almost lay there,
By the last page of the Shu's and Ching,
The glory thy benighted pages,
Here and the Shu's and Ching of empires: still
The scroll at which the beam of wisdom shines,
The scroll of knowledge, glowing there in light,
Shines from the eternal source of Shu's and Ching's light.

Childe Harold.

Staley

Staley, the Staley, looking on thee,
Still glances on the scroll the light of ages;
Since the fierce satirist's pen almost lay there,
By the last page of the Shu's and Ching,
The glory thy benighted pages,
Here and the Shu's and Ching of empires: still
The scroll at which the beam of wisdom shines,
The scroll of knowledge, glowing there in light,
Shines from the eternal source of Shu's and Ching's light.

Staley

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor discoloration and faint, illegible handwriting visible through the paper. A large, faint, circular mark is present on the right side of the page.

[Faint, illegible handwriting]

A close-up of a page from a manuscript, showing musical notation on staves and a large, ornate initial letter 'C' in the center. The page is aged and yellowed, with some staining. The musical notation is written in dark ink on five-line staves. The initial 'C' is large and decorative, with a long horizontal stroke extending to the right. The text is written in a cursive script.

No! Love indeed is light from heaven
 It speaks of that immortal fire,
 Its light shined by the quiver,
 It came from earth ere the stars
 Creation cradled her mind above,
 But Heaven itself demands we love,
 It speaks from the Godhead ever It comes from all each word brought,
 A ray of heavenly light the light,
 A glory shining round the world,

卷之四

2) 1) Lamps burn silent with unceasing light,
The modest ead in beauty, shines most bright,
Flourishing charms with edge reveals, full,
And she the self means no more does it all.
Will

Concluding Remarks
133 Grubbs' Hints

1 Given to the red above thee,
Friend of my better days;
Hence hence these feet to leave thee,
Her named, thou wilt be jealous

2 Tears fell where thou wert dying, Thou eyes would be wept;
And long where thou art lying,
Shall tears they cold try stop,

3 Your hearts so found for hearts,
Like these are laid in earth;
There should a wreath be woven,
To tell the world their worth

And I like you each more
But escape they find in you,
These every day cannot escape,
These what find we will never.

But I will be with you
I find they find true,
But a find all I find it
And find I find it.

These I find it is true
These I find it is true
That I find it is true
That I find it is true

Embrace

Some of the forgotten
I find I find I find
I find I find I find
I find I find I find

Approach then some
I find I find I find
I find I find I find
I find I find I find

And I find I find
I find I find I find
I find I find I find
I find I find I find

London 26th July 1835

Matilda

But Spencer may be forgot,
That long by an unknown spot,
And Shakespeares name be near,
But still is stay and in song,
The young are age remembered long,
Shall live the stars of England,
And shield of Matilda,

Scott

July 26th 1838

Thine in P. M. M.!

Salath Morning

How calm comes on this holy day!

Morning, forgets the eastern day,

And upward takes her lofty way.

Triumphs not to her throne on high.

Earth glorious wakes, as o'er her breast

The morning flings her rosy ray;

And brushing from her dreamlike rest,

She wails her to the gaze of day;

No still the scene, each wakeful sound

Seems hallowed music breathing round

The night-winds to their mountain crevices,

The morning mists to heaven's blue steep;

And to their ocean depths, the waves

Are gone, their holy rest to keep.

'Tis tranquil all — around — above —

The forests far, which bound the scene,

Are peaceful as their Maker's love,

Like hills of everlasting green;

And clouds like costly barriers stand

Onwards of some vernal land.

Each tree that lifts its arm in air,
Or hangs its paradise head on high,
Seems bending at its morning prayer,
Or whispering with the horns gone by.
Thou holy morning, Lord, is thine—Let silence sanctify thy praise,
Let heaven and earth in love combine,
And morning stars their music raise;
For 'tis the day—joy—yea, ye dead,
When death and hell were captive led.

Ann B. Euclid Nov 26th 1841

Christ on the Tempest

Storm on the midnight waters! the west sky
Is sloping with the thunder. Cloud on cloud Meets merrily in the darkness, like a shout Shout by some returning spirit from the light Clouds tumble north of Heaven. The mighty waves Joins beneath its shadow, like the wall
Whence winds of a spirit from the groves,
Which bound some prematurely to his cold
And desolate doom. So—they might move—
Largest and heaviest seas, along whose floor Shuttles the lightning from its thick cloud fold.
Alone it is very terrible! The roar Ascendeth unto Heaven, and thunders back.
Like a response of demons, from the black Hells of the hanging tempests—quivering on The wild waves in their torment. Heave the cry Of the strong men in peril pressing through The strong sphere of the waters and the sky;
As the west break one on another's sides to waves,
On the tall billows, with the thunder-cloud Closing around, above like a shield!

He stood above the setting decks His form Made visible by the lightning, and his form Uncovered to the rising of the storm,

Sold of a bright moon many never knew Lower undervind and night. — Peace be still The great waves roared him and the stars went home Hurt hurrying into silence at his will.

And the dark clouds were yet the lightning shone
And after the latent thunder rolled away

Unhail a mass of smokes rolled behind Laying upon the vision of the sun
To stormless wonders for us far and near

Chang Day December 27th 1841

"Where spring, like's joining of streams, Shed glittering fountains shaded my eyes;
Among the extended stream,
Day after day was before me;

But soon I found it was all a dream,
And found the fountains were not streams, Where fountains were the fountains were,
And the waters daily are under me."

Anna W. Parker

West Philadelphia Oct 11th 1842

I amely may freely surround the conqueror; but But happy if they return in the world to come;
 I do not have a world like this to fight,
 And their spirit is a world from human sight.
 Oh, in some rock, or some little known thicket,
 Hide, pray in haste, and not the host of hell;
 Of great treasures, chosen their lord's shrine,
 And all these treasures, they are all their own.

Doves here and there; amply long measure encircle and inclose of thy flowing stream; Downy the isle of stone, thy bounding vein,
 seems it to say, Health here has long reign; Hast thou the fragrance of thy garden, are thy waters deep? or health and strength to give?
 Not fair. Youth oft times, health and all ease, sacrificed away it never sees;
 And many a tribe, they Haman knew, a legend
 'twined, forsook there for a deadly weed.

Oh happy slender time withal!
Frequently to pass, but not to me!
If only the scene that offers not, agree
And heart that cannot not agree!

Why grieve, oh man, that offering prices
We add, grieve to the knave, Wight with a soul like yours there
And prove if anything could please.

But what matter, I am
Of your great what the facts within Which the scene and the scene
And the scene and the scene.

Oh that I were in your company,
Which I have to find the scene,
The scene and the scene
And the scene and the scene.

The scene and the scene
Which I have to find the scene,
The scene and the scene
And the scene and the scene.

Of spirit-matter, yet by nature soft Softly and sweetly as here on earth;
And though the substance may be of a kind,
Different - and yet becoming to the mind;
Which God by God - in earth by nature being;
Forming from the spirit of the Lord
The living truth - not yet to truth conforming;

This world is all a fleeting show,
A transient illusion, a dream;
The smiles of joy, the tears of woe,
Sweetest of all, dear friend, are gone.
There's nothing true but heaven!

And false the light on things below,
And fading these ephem'ra;
And here, and hope, and heaven's bow,
The flowers gather for the sun,
Which nothing bright but heaven's!

For wanderers of a stormy day,
From home to more wide shores;
And fancy's flash, and Heaven's ray,
Here fall to light the transient day—Where's nothing calm but heaven!

October 31st 1847.

Anna M. Wheeler.

Regarding of those above,
Why long my panting stand to know
For heavenly help? And is there And death is felt by saints below.

But here we have radiant light Beyond compare, beyond compare,
No shade, no night, no day, no night,
The whole that breathe shall appear in.

The soul from heaven must be refined,
From earthly hope, from earthly fear,
No guilty still may enter the inner,
No doubt nor shame may enter there.

There, there, where pure and unrefined,
There, where pure and unrefined,
No faith can dwell, no hope, no love,
No peace, no joy, no heaven's strain.

When shall I see, when shall I see
When shall I see, when shall I see
When shall I see, when shall I see
When shall I see, when shall I see
When shall I see, when shall I see

Anna M. Wheeler.

Letter of Anna W. Spencer copied
by her great niece.

West Philadelphia

July 5th, 1837
Received from 11/10

My dear Brother

I received your letter on the 25th of June and would not have delayed answering so long, but was waiting a favorable opportunity to see Mr. Wright which I could not accomplish. I went yesterday to the city expressly to see him but himself and family were out, being ^{the 4th of July} ~~on a party~~ ~~at dinner~~ relative to the time. I believe there is no change for the better if not worse than when you left. There are a great many persons out of employ. and money so scarce to be had, and what we do receive scarcely covers the name. We have from five cents bills up to fifty. for change there is scarcely to be seen. I am happy you wrote when you did as I was very much distressed on account of your long silence we were all alarmed for fear some accident had happened to you particularly when news reached us that a steam boat was burned and all her crew lost, as we did not know what course you would pursue after you reached Pittsburgh I am very much rejoiced that you are safe and I sincerely hope that you may be successful in your pursuit, and may find employment without going a very great distance from us You wrote that you intend going further west, & so continue to write whenever favorable opportunity presents and whenever you write always let us know exactly what are your prospects without flattering us as I shall always feel particularly interested in your welfare. We are all well at present and situated about the same as when you left us. I continue teaching school in the same place, I have not time for your thank yet but intend to as soon as the men have leisure to go to the city they have been engaged in the Chicago all this season about a building of Mormon a preacher, You do not say whether you made any stay at Pittsburgh nor whether you could get any employment. I have nothing interesting to write as I do not associate with the millage as it is such a talking place that every word that is said is misrepresented. When told again. That Saturday I intend making a visit to Uncle Fishers and spend Sunday. I have seen them all lately they are well and send their best wishes for your welfare W. V. Johnson and wish all the family send their respects to you and also then best wishes for your safe return which I sincerely hope is not far distant Continue to tread the path of virtue and I have no doubt you will be successful in all your undertaking. Just your trust in the Almighty for he has promised never to forsake those put their trust in him, and also he will be a father to the fatherless and we are ever his promisee are immutable they cannot change if we will believe and obey his instructions.

Further than it is said is to be married this fall to a Mr. Wheel who will be his third wife.
Your affectionate sister Mrs Charles Coulter
with love and often all

West Philadelphia May 20, 1849

Sir,

As my anxiety relative to my Brother Charles, has become intense, reading daily the news from the South and West, giving accounts of the ravages made by the Cholera, and, not having received a letter from my Brother since January, I have been compelled to adopt this course. Charles stated in his last letter that he was, not well, and the Cholera then raging at Centerville. I wrote an answer immediately on receiving his but as yet have received no answer. I hope my anxiety will plead an apology for the liberty I have taken in addressing you. If you have heard of my Brother, or know where he is at present, you will confer a great favor by writing an answer as soon as you receive this. My mind is made up to hear the worst, should he have fallen a victim to the ravages of disease, though I will continue to hope that such is not the fact until I hear from you. The Cholera has reached New York, and has proved fatal in several cases. Should Charles be living and residing at your place, please notify him that I have not received a letter from him for several months.

Very Respectfully

Anna W. Goucher

Wm. John G. Elliott

P.S. Please direct to me at West Philadelphia Philadelphia Pa.

A copy of land partition made by.

The subscribers chosen and mutually agreed upon by William Goucher, Francis Goucher, and Samuel Goucher, to make partition of the real estate of Thomas Goucher late of Blackley Township in the County of Philadelphia, having met and viewed the same, and having (respect) to quantity and quality, we did part and divide the same in three parts as follows, viz. No 1 Beginning by (see per draft annexed including all new Well &c to the liberty of building a new Barn on the Creek above, &c as to dwell the water up to the line of Charles Morris' The Dam when built is to be made sufficient for a Wharfe as far as to pass over the vale, and forever to be kept so far the use of Samuel Goucher passing to and from one part of the farm to the other, containing thirteen acres one rood thirty one perches, which we have valued, and appraised at five thousand eight hundred dollars and allotted and assigned the same to William Goucher No 2. Beginning by (including the old mill dwellings &c to make up and forever keep in good repair, the wall of the upper dam, (viewing the right of drawing the water out of the same, from time to time for his convenience) on the Creek above, sufficient for a Dagg as is laid to pass over the same, for the use of Samuel Louches paying from one part of the farm to the other Containing thirteen acres three Rods & thirty perches, which are have valued and appraised at six thousand seven hundred ^{eight} and allotted & assigned the same to Francis Louches No 3. Beginning & (including the farm) containing Eighty five Acres three Rods seven perches including half an acre, which is to be reserved for the family for a Burying place, which we have valued and appraised at Four thousand five hundred dollars and allotted and assigned the same to Samuel Louches & Wife on the 15th day of March One thousand eight hundred & nine

Abraham Weston

A copy of the title of property in Blackley Township A Draught of a Tract of land in the Liberties of Philadelphia. Surveyed the fourth of the Sixth month 1700 unto Thomas Story, Attorney to Joseph Pike pursuant to the process from Justice of the Peace bearing Date the 25th day of the 5 mo. 1700 Containing 100 acres as accordingly returned into the Records Office the 25th Day of the 6 mo. 1700
By me Edward Pennington Surveyor

A true Copy of the original Draught agreeing with the Records of the said land as in the Patent for the same. Recorded in the office at Philadelphia
By me Tho. M. Story M^r Clerk Recorded in the Hall Office at Philadelphia in Patent Book A. Vol. 2. page 241 or 4. 245 - p^{rs} 94-32 month 1702.

By me Thom^s Story M^r Clerk
Deed 6-6 46 Nov 3-10
to 1 3 £ 11.1

A plot of land Belonging to the Land Company situated in Blackley Township Philadelphia County Surveyed and divided into lots the 5th day of April 1791
By Benjamin Davis

Copy of letter of Anna Dacshen to her brother, Charles: 29th 23

West Philadelphia, Pa. March 7th 1847

Dear Brother—

I received your letter bearing date Feb^r 2nd about the 16th of the month, which was about a week later than it should have been if it had come direct. This is one of the reasons why you have not received an answer to yours before this; another is, the weather has been so inclement, and the roads so very bad that I could not see the girls, until yesterday, when I succeeded. Maria is entirely well of the chills, and looks quite well again. It was the opinion of the Physicians, last spring, and summer that she had the Liver complaint, and was of the opinion that she could not recover, however she has been restored to health, contrary to all our expectations. Harriet is very well. I heard from Thomas yesterday, he is well, and is still working well. John is well. They are engaged at present repairing a house for Stephen Dacshen at Marion, where he had moved, about a year since. I believe I told you Stephen's wife was deceased, also his son, he is now making preparations to marry Ann Sharpless; all the friends at that are well and well to be remembered to you, Elizabeth Stuartell and family have removed to Cincinnati, Ohio this fall. They first went to Kentucky, to see her brother, Thomas West. Thomas West is married and lives either in Kentucky or Tennessee, I have forgotten which of the two places. Aunt Harriet and Hannah, as well and live in this place, Augustus has grown up, to very worthless, I think he has not good sense, if he has he puts it to a bad use. I have not seen any person from Shadlington, or heard from there since I last wrote, you spoke in your letter of coming home this spring, we all wish very much that you would, we think that you could as well get a living here as any other place, we would like very much that you make the trial,

I am very glad that you have not engaged in the Rapid war, a great number of young men of this place volunteered, but I have learned that a number of them have regretted it long since, but are ashamed to return I am still in the same school, West Philadelphia was improved very much since you left,

the Semanant Bridge is free from toll,
and a line of omnibuses run to the city every half hour, so that numbers have removed from the city here. I cannot think of anything at present that would be interesting so well else, if the seal of your letter was loose when it came to hand, I examined it closely, and think it was the fault of wrapper, but am not sure that it was. I have thought perhaps the Post master was not sure to whom it belonged, as there is in this place another person by the name of Anna Baucker, and my name is always written Anna W.
Baucker, I think it was sent to her first,
and then returned, you will ask who she is, there is a family live at Covington on the turnpike, who came Lundrestand from Europe. I have had two of their children at school, please be careful how you direct

Yours affectionately

Michael Anthony }
Anna W. Baucker }
West Philadelphia }
Pa.

Copy of letter written by Samuel Walker, (father of Charles Walker) to Ann M. Enckes his daughter.

Emmitsburg, State of Maryland. Sept. 30, 1833.

My dear Ann

At this stage of my Patriotic

Being anxious to hear of your welfare, & commencing writing partly to inform you, am well, which is nearly the amount of information I can give you; as regards my self, better than that I am a wonder to myself! not feeling the slightest dyspepsia, and here I should feel myself condemned when I not to say that I have been supported by the almighty, who tempereth the storm, to the storm itself, I have visited Lancaster, Columbia, Harrisburg, York Haven, Little York, Gettysburg, besides a number of minor towns, as also the district of charity, near this place, and yesterday was at meeting on the South Mountain, about six miles from the place, and heard Moravian ministers preach, perhaps what has passed, has been intended for good, indeed I firmly believe it I intend, setting out this day for Gettysburg at which place, I hope to hear from you.

whether I shall stop there, further than to hear from you; I know not, indeed I know not yet, where I may find a meeting place, only this I know, that I am inevitably, impelled, to proceed, nor supposed to look back, but to my children, but to proceed, to the more immediate purpose of this letter, I wish you to see them as and get him to inquire of Charles, if he is satisfied, with his situation; and if so to inform Bacon, to forward, to Pittsburg, an article of agreement, founded on the following, Basis, and I will copy it and forward, the exchange to him,

Mr Bacon, so to give Charles, one year's work three months, of which, he is to receive the year's and two weeks in each and every year, for harvest, that he may obtain money for himself, as also in the spring and fall of each and every year, he shall be allowed four days, half spring and fall, to visit his brother and sisters, that you be not estranged from each other, the said Bacon, is also to find him, the said Charles, good every day or working clothes, as well as good Sunday clothes, with regard to clothes, the impugnation were he would give him as good as he were himself, and the said Franklin Bacon, further agree, to give him, the said Charles, when of age, a freedom suit, the worth of which shall be thirty dollars, endeavor to see Thomas, and tell him I will write to him, directed to the West Philadelphia post office, it is just this side the Burnamont Bridge, and here let me advise you if your grandmother should die in my absence, immediately to see a lawyer; and let him enter a caveat against it, that is supposing her to have left it, to Harriet's three children, as I have understood to be the case, and be not backward to do this, it will cost but five dollars, it must be attended to immediately, almost as soon as she will be read, attend strictly to this.

I wish to know who gets the mason and carpenter work of the meeting house at Haddington hasten the answer to this letter even be the children of our family see Thomas let him and Charles see Maria indeed Samuel by no means satisfied with her situation.

Miss Ann Barker

Yours ever affectionate
Father Samuel Barker

Have you well I cannot say for have to my P.S. You can do the condition in my and Charles's of this and have ... the Thomas be sure not to forget any of them

(over)

(these notes were on the sides of the letter)

The daughter of my cousin Rebecca Jimmerson, formerly Han To only five feet nine inches high and is sixteen years old. once nine living. Her name Mary Caroline Jimmerson (children)

(note on front of letter)

I wish you all to avoid to travel as you would avoid a friend of the Baltimore pit a thousand such souls as his might dance on the point of a bamboo needle, I cannot here tell you of the pomp of that man's conduct.

(Outside letter)

Miss Anna M. Goucher
Care of Mrs Ann West
Philadelphia

No 186 Fourth above Gallows Hill St

1833

First letter

Dear Brother:

West Philadelphia? March 14th 1848

I received your letter on Saturday morning at an early hour, and would not have delayed a ~~moment~~ moment in answering it, but thought it would be best to defer it until I could visit Aunt Harriet, herself, and Hannah are well. Carpenter is still at the hospital not any better, nor no hope of ever being any better. George Dedrick, attempted to jump off the car, just as it was turning the curve, at Market and Broad st. He fell and two wheels passed over his left arm, crushing so dreadfully, that it had to be amputated just above the shoulder. The physician administered Chloroform which put him in a stupor, he was incapable to any pain, He is still in the hospital, not all is he removed, nor set up yet. He was hurt about three weeks ago I was down at Brook 4 weeks ago, met with disaster. Then, she has been very severely hurt, and made a narrow escape with her life. Doory and Thiers are all well. Thomas Mathews mother was bound to death this winter, she took fire well mystery, a man by the name of Mackinson, living with John Barton at Longspring was sealed to death a few weeks since, with 3 others on the rail road, the first were going up to Reading to run a horse, the bet $200 dollars, he was to be married when he returned, to Jane Trail, Maria is well, I have not heard from Thomas and will add, it is not likely that I shall soon, as it appears that he is so completely taken up with the family in which he lives, that I would not be at all surprised, if he were dangerously sick, he as they, would not let me know it, I think it is very unfeeling in him, he has no regard for me, if he had any ambition, he would not permit his actions to struggle for a living as they have to, I long since would have went to housekeeping if he would have boarded with me in order to have given them a home, but it is useless, printing fault— I can nothing, with any of them, but will leave the matter to do the best they can, I have made myself very unhappy, grieving about them. Jacob Hoffmann died on Sunday with dyspepsia, he is to be buried or deposited in a vault to morrow, Thomas Rhoads, was married to a Thomas Wadsworth of Wilmington, about the 4th of this month Stephen Daackels, is also married, I commenced writing to you on Christmas Day, finished and sent the letter to the post office on New Years Day as I do not keep a copy any letters that I write do not remember what I wrote which might be interesting to you, as I never go to Middletown of course cannot see anything from there, there is quite a good deal of building going on here, I have some thought of selling my lot if it will bring $300 dollars, as lumber keeps so very high, what I think it would be best not to build, although I would prefer having a house over, as I then could open a private school, and not have my mind perpetually troubled with, Districts, I feel sometimes, almost to despair, of ever having any comfort in this world, our lot has been hard, Lydia Boon, is keeping house for a, Gentleman in Ohio place, her own home is not very comfortable, Mary Fisher, is not yet married, and I doubt whether she will ever be, quite whenever convenient as I always feel happy to hear from you, I am not exactly sick, nor quite well, fear the child intends making me a visit, I have been very well all winter.

Yours affectionately

Anna W. Bowdler

West Philadelphia April 23rd 1843.

My dear Brother

I received your letter on Friday. which brought the painful intelligence that you are fast declining, and it so doubly painful to know that you are sick, where perhaps there is no kind friend to administer to your wants and necessities, I can sympathize deeply with and for you, as I have experienced the same to a very great extent, my mind is, and has been deeply exercised in your behalf ever since you first went to the West, knowing the temptations there are in the world, to induce and seduce the young, particularly those who have no kind friends to take an interest in their welfare, My dear Brother you are not forgotten nor shall be, you have a place in all our hearts, we think and talk of you, and have also written to you, but have been so important as you state you have not received any of them, I have now 3 letters of yours lying before me, two of which I have answered, and the third am answering at present, one directed to Brother Thomas dated May 13th 1843 which my brother did not receive being absent at the time, I was living in Cheeths Co., I heard there was a letter at the office, took it out and answered it, I have another directed to myself dated Jan^y 23rd 1843 from Memphis,

Therefore which did not come to hand until June and only then by accident it was advertised in one of the City papers so that you will at once perceive that we have not been forgetful of you, for my own part I hope the Lord will soon make ^{me} ~~wise~~ in my history when I shall forget you, my prayers have been ascending to Heaven in your behalf that God in His mercy would protect you and save you from the dangers and evils of this world, and that he would be a friend to you in every time of trouble, and that he would visit the Holy Spirit upon your heart to convince you of the necessity of the preparation of heart to be met for an inheritance beyond the grave that is inextinguishable and that fades not away, all things beneath the Sun are passing away, and as with all the Heats, none are exempt from it whom we to prepare for the solemn event, convinced as we are that life is the time to serve the Lord in time to serve the great reward, as there is no repentance in the grave nor pardon offered to the dead, Oh therefore if you have not seen well to this matter I beseech you to begin the work this very moment and upon that that he may have mercy upon you and forgive you through the atonement of the Blessed Victim who is always willing to forgive those who call upon him with a contrite heart, Oh do not put off seeking your souls salvation until a dying hour, you will find you have enough to contend with when death lays his leg around you, without praying then, it may be you will be ^{born} ~~in~~ in your last moments, in distress, if so what a state to be ushered into the presence of that God who is too pure to behold unguity and the least degree of allowance, and if ~~you~~ are no fortunate as to the sin our sins before God and Christ are we cannot come, but must leave the useful sentence depart

My dear Mother as it is highly probable we soon shall meet again in this world, let us strive to have a happy meeting in that world where sickness and sorrow is an eternal stranger the instant of that happy country have no head and heart ache, no bedding farewell to friends that are as dear to us as our very lives, but there we shall be employed in singing the hymn of Redeeming one to him who has washed and made us white, in the reward of the drunk the sinner and the merciful and merciful ^{from} ~~to~~ even may be the happy lot come? Your affectionate sister Anna W. Hawker

Please give me in your next letter the person name with your address also if I stand in need of anything, write partially and perambulate what he will & hear from you.
(over)

There has been a great deal of sickness in this place the past year, almost every disease has prevailed and has proved very fatal. At present there is not quite so much sickness. I had a very severe attack of Chewing and quinsy just after new year which proved nearly fatal but by the blessing of God I have been partially restored to health, I am not everything at present but hope when the weather becomes colder I shall get stronger. I think my lungs are affected but have not had medical advice, my heart has been very much affected for two years past owing to the constant and arduous duty of teaching a large school we teach on quite a different plan from what we did formerly. I have at present under my charge from 150 to 175 scholars with one assistant teacher. The building we occupy has recently been built 3 stories high, the dimensions are 62 feet by 42, which makes room to seat 200 children in each room besides a chapel for each, there are at present 6 scholars in the building, and somewhere in the neighborhood of 500 children it is estimated an estimate shall we have a splendid prospect of the city and environs, from the Casapala we see the Delaware, the place has changed very much within the past few years, a number of buildings have been erected, but at present business has stopped almost entirely we little that is in progress, have to be entirely taken in trade, money can scarcely be obtained at all. There are hundreds out of employ and have been for months, I have no reason to complain so much as usual. constant employ since I returned from my mission, which was 2 years the 19th of March last 4 weeks only in that time, we are all well. (The William Fisher has been dead 1 year his son has been married about 2 yrs, they are together as formerly know the same, Eliza Fisher the son was down last spring and staid 12 weeks he is well, and visited several persons in the neighborhood before he left, he is a complete sailor. John Frailly is married to Ann Regis about a year, she was to a Methodist Quaker, by the name of Barclay, she was married this spring to James Johnson likewise a Methodist Quaker. Edmund moved this spring to Haddington, has given the farm up to John. Smith has sold their farm, London married about 18 months. Lewis Trumble wife sister. Ann Thomas is not married her father is dead and her brother has turned out badly. I have a great deal to say that I have no room for. Your Brother and sister are again in the meeting this time to you, hoping we soon shall hear from you and that you will show the letter.

West Philad^{ia} Oct 4th 1846

Dear Brother

I received your letter on Wednesday the 1st day of the month, but put off writing until today, in order to give any information that would be interesting to you, I never was more agreeably surprised in my life than when I found on opening the letter that it came from you, as we had all given up the idea of hearing from you as seeing you, we were all fearful that you were an inhabitant of the Eternal world, from the tenor of the last letter I received from you which stated, that you were fast declining, I answered that immediately it was dated April 15th 1843, since that time we have never received a line from you, you speak of sickness, and sudden death, I believe it is the same everywhere, in this place we have a great many sudden deaths, some by fire, some by drowning, some are found dead cause unknown, some again are taken off suddenly with only a few days sickness, there have several deaths of our acquaintances and friends, since I last wrote to you, Uncle Wm Fisher has been dead, two or three years, I do not recollect whether I sent you word or not, Aunt Elizabeth, his wife has sold her place to Orzech Shingle one of their journeyman it is reported that he and Mary F. is to be married, Aunt and Eliza have two rooms secured in the house for their use. Thomas Fick is married and has two children, I believe lives in Thornton, am not sure that is the name of the place, The Ficks was on some time since and gave them considerable trouble, Mrs. Ficks died last spring. Anna Bechall is dead, by her death sister Maria lost a good friend, our sister Maria and Harriet have each been very sick, last fall we all expected Harriet would not recover, when she recovered sister Maria was taken sick with intermittent fever, she is better and now, sometimes she will be clear of chill for two or three weeks, she does not get entirely clear of them, the Physician says her liver is affected. Thomas also I learn has had chills though I have not seen him for 4 years, I cannot assign any reason for this absence, he will hardly visit Ficks they live at Monroe Mills, I will give you some particulars concerning myself. I returned from Weymouth March 19th 1841 and opened school in the Basement of the Methodist Church, and taught there a year, the Contract was built a very large school house on Chestnut Hill, there was an examination for teachers, I was elected Principal for the secondary with one assistant, we opened school on the 10th day of October 1842. four years counting 6 days, I still remain in the same situation, and will as long as my health permits, I have had the chills for nearly three years, for 18 months I had them very steadily sometimes two weeks apart, at other every day. I had two only four weeks ago and feel very like having one again, I had a very severe spell of sickness, the illness and permitting fever, then sunk into long Typhus. Every person that saw me that it would be impossible that I should recover, I did not expect it myself, and what time I have had several attacks, but not so severe in the spring I had a pretty severe spell at present am pretty well when I have not the chills. Our cousin Anne was about the same as when you saw them, no change having taken place in the family, they are all single, they have built a pretty snug barn, this spring, they inquire very particularly about you and would like very much to see you, I will have to condense matters now, Mrs. Ficks is dead, John Traill has been married a long time to Ann Alger, Luanna and Hannah are married to Methodist Preachers, some persons has bought the Mill seat from Hyacks, and has rebuilt the Manufactory. When and Andrew Smith had a quarrel and separated Andrew then married a sister of Lewis Thumblers wife, Samuel Phoades

and his wife and daughter Elizabeth are all dead Normi Thode is also deceased. Charles Garry was thrust from a horse while in a state of intoxication and was killed instantly. John Hoffman is also deceased, Isaac Hoffman and Plenas Palmer both died within a short time of each other. The Thoms still remain in No. 11. Keeping a boarding house Amie yet single. Felle Delmuth is lately married New York of this place. What Philadelphia is so much improved since you left it you would hardly recognize it, there has been a great deal of building within the last three years. Some very fine houses have been erected, the main street is lighted with lamps, Chestnut St. is also lighted by individuals, I cannot say whether there is much improvement or not at Washington as I have not been there for several years.

James Thode was married and buried his wife in the space of a year. I might continue until I filled the sheet and could chronicle all the doings that have occurred among our acquaintances I have never received but give letters from you and I have answered every one of them, a year or two ago there was one advertised in the paper directed to Thomas which we got, I think it was

we have not gotten them so they have not been properly directed, the one I just received is directed wrong and I cannot conceive how it came to hand, in postage was only 10 cts, please be careful how you direct your letters so I may not fail to get them Will you please give me the name of the person you board with, while at Colliethville in case anything should occur, we may know where to direct letters in your absence, I should have come out during the summer vacation if had known where to find you. Write soon and believe me to be yours.

Affectionate Sister

Anna M. Spencer

Went to

West Philadelphia

Philadelphia Co, Pennsylvania

West Philadelphia June 26th 1847.

Dear Brother

I take the present opportunity of writing, and must confess I know not what to say except that this is our Brother Thomas' birthday which completes his 35 years of age. This day one month will be mine. I have neither seen nor heard from Thomas since the evening we parted at Aunt Harriet's, nor from Harriet either. Sister Maria removed to Stamford the next week after you left I think she boards with Cousin Marcus Doon brother of Jacob's. At this, she is very comfortably situated. Can conceive at home regret very much that you did not stay longer with them. . . . have exceedingly lately she has had several children, & made no great well and asks have you written. Her brother & no, no, no, has removed to Newcastle to take charge of a Baptist Church (two weeks ago August) the same way as he could be very noisy. The weather here has been so remarkably cool that I have the shells again they have made me write I dare not go out of doors after sunset. I am well preserve I cannot get to visit any of our friends. I had intended to have visited Sister Maria but felt so very weak thought it would be best to postpone my visit until vacation, which will commence yesterday four weeks, I never visited as much for next we expect to have six weeks, if I had anyone to go with I should like to go to the sea shore as some distance from home perhaps change of place might effect what medicine will not. it is very nearly five years what I have had the shills. I expected that you would have written as soon as you returned to inform me whether you got back safely. I am called to tea therefore must stop for the present today is very hot the thermometer stands at 98 deg in the shade. Saturday evening 6 o'clock.

June 27th

I will now conclude what was commenced yesterday. there is nothing of much interest at present. A man last week had a wire stretched across the string that runs and succeeded in making across the river on it. He attempted to do so once before but when he had very nearly reached the other shore persons ran against the wire, and expedited him into the river. I understood he was hurt. The President James W. Polk made a visit to Philadelphia last week. I did not go to see him, have no curiosity see him. Today is very hot and clear, we feel the heat more than at other times at the same season. because the clouds opening has been so cold we have fire until the last week.

I shall not write until after vacation. perhaps I shall be able to write something that will be interesting. Write as soon as convenient

Affectionately
Anna W. Branch

Sunday afternoon 4 o'clock

Dear Brother!

As I have not received an answer to my letter dated June 26th, it was suggested to my mind as I had leisure this afternoon, that I could not employ myself better than sending you the current news, we have very hot, and dry weather at present, there has been comparatively little rain this season. Although we have had much cloudy weather, and we think we shall have a fine rain, it passes away to some other place according to the best information I can get there is abundant rain in Chester County and many other places not far distant. I paid a visit to our Cousin Aaron's at Hook, where I spent three days ending the 4th of July. They all inquired particularly of you had written, and were anxious to hear from you. Elizabeth had been sick but was better our sister Maria has been quite well but had quite recovered, I left her at Hook. She intends remaining there for some time to recruit. Having had a violent attack. I also saw sister Harriet on the 4th at Mt. Zion Church she was well as usual. There is nothing transpiring at present that would be interesting to you, as if there is I do not hear it have not seen Thomas since you left, nor heard from him. Aunt Harriet has had and now has a great deal of trouble with Augustine, as he has become unmanageable. He has made three attacks upon Dr. Pleasant, the last time was last Thursday evening, if his mother had not caught him just as he struck at the Doctor and held him with all her strength, and begging the Dr. to run into the nearest house, until she could prevail on Augustine to go into the house with her which he did after much persuasion, it was with the greatest difficulty she could keep him in. He had to be constantly watched, & keep him from going into the street. He swears vengeance against Pleasant, and this man has given Aunt H. only until to-morrow to have him put in safe keeping, or he will swear his life against Augustine, when she will have to give security, and after that should he violate the order to have him sent to the Ash Grove as usual. I think the Doctor has acted very unkindly towards Aunt in giving so short a time to make arrangements, but she will not do anything, saying that no family is in danger, that he would be willing to run, but he gave her the safety of his family. Tomorrow Augustine will be sent to the Oakley House Hospital where he will remain until further arrangements, or until he gets better. I have forgotten to say that since Thursday evening he has had no reason, but appears very melancholy, has not said a single word about his conduct, which he always has done before and remarked how badly he felt afterwards, for some time back he has been persuading his mother to move away from this place, he would like her to remove to the West, or to the country. If she could do so it appears to me it would be much better. It is my opinion that she will not live long as she is weighed down with sorrow and grief, she appears to have a double portion. I dread very much to see tomorrow, as her son will have to be taken by force, he being very strong, and will be very violent. I dread the consequence as Aunt is very nervous and has lost so much sleep watching him, that she looks dreadful. I expect she will have a very short sickness she has had chill and Choler morbus until she looks very badly, she has not eaten anything for several days if you should see her soon Thomas H. can inform him. I intend to write to him however tomorrow, he has removed to Louisville, Kentucky, I think it would be something to his credit to come home and try to comfort his afflicted mother or assist her in some way. I forgot to mention that his board in the Hospital will be $3.50 per week, and no hopes of his ever recovering as the disease has come on so gradually, so the Physician says, however I hope for the best, the disease is fluctuating on his father's side.

Sunday afternoon Affectionately yours
July 18th 1847 Anna W. Bancroft

(Same enclosure)

Dear Brother
West Philadelphia July 1847

Our vacation commences on the 23rd and continues until 1st Sept. I shall be very glad as I very much need rest, I would almost be tempted to come out to Ellstonville if there were any one to accompany me. I have no doubt such a journey would be a great advantage to me. I have not made any arrangements as yet, it is probable I shall not go from home, as ^{it} rest is most needed, on Friday I visited the Academy of Fine Arts, and obtained the names of my eyes so much that it pains me to see them. There are some very fine paintings in the collection, from the best artists, Mary Shallen not yet married. During the man we were laughing about, is married to a Miss Town. He lived a widower about 5 months so you perceive I have misused my carriage and piano, what a mischievous is!

Friday 24th, We closed school yesterday at 11 o'clock as I was so very sick that I could not sit up having had a chill the night before. I have had several phren being exposed so much having been out in the evenings at Aunt Harriet's now I may suffer and have no one to sympathize with me, tonight I shall have another have just got out of bed & joined this. My head very bad. I have taken a severe cold and am sore from head to foot. Shugrettes was put in the Pennsylvania Hospital on Tuesday. Several men that he knew came in a dearborn and asked him to go with them to look for work, I do not wish to distance he made, as the men would not inform his mother, my weakness is curing I keep these mud the had a splendid day and last night but the weather while I am writing it looks like pouring. I close by saying I hope you will write as soon as you can, I hope you are well. Do not stay in the south if you find that you are in danger. With Best Wishes

Friday, afternoon 31st.

Anna W. Bancroft

West Hill Lodge August 16, 1847

Dear Brother

I received yours, dated the 6th on Friday at noon, and would have answered it the same day but the family is making preparation to move, which has prevented me doing so. I would have replied. I closed school the 23rd of July at 11 o'clock, being unable to sit up any longer, leaving the Autumnterm gone. It was very week for several days previously having a chill every day. I thought that possibly I could stay at the school room until evening, provided I had a person to teach some of the classes but I found it impossible. It was very week for this day and was just able to come downstairs when Cousin William Brown came for me to come and assist in moving Sister Maria. She was then so weak and was taken very sudden with Dysentery. She would not consent to have a Physician, so I was obliged to go with him. When I arrived there found her very low. I did everything for her that I possibly could until Monday morning. I then told her that we had done all that we could for her, and I would send for a Physician, which I did. She continued very low until the next Friday when a change took place for the better.

For eight days we never ate a mouthful, or lived on the medicine, and drank sage. It was very unfortunate for me as I was so very and the day before I was sent for the employed another Doctor, in order to see whether any thing could be done to relieve me of the headache pain in my side. Am at present taking the Homopathic medicine, which has given me some relief, have not had a sleep since I have taken of this medicine. I would leave the School forever if there was any way for me to make a living, but I cannot sit to rest half a day at a time. I need some employment that is not so confining, and also not exposed to the inclemency of the weather. I believe I would get well were it not for the constant expense. I will try the school until next spring if I get no answer, then if there is no change I will let the consequence be what it may, it is enough at any rate to break down the strongest constitution, it wears out the mind as well as the body. I should like very much to come out to Ellinville, but it will be impossible this season as the School opens the 1st of September, which will be here before I am ready. Am very sorry to hear you have so sore a hand, did not understand you exactly, what was the matter with it, but hope it will soon be better. You speak of going south, would it not be better to defer going yet, until the winter season is over, the School term is raging at Orleans so you will see by the latest news 17 deaths in a day at the Hospital. I hope you will consider the consequence and not risk your life by going yet a while, what signifies making money if we endanger life. We might as well have some comfort as we pass along, as we can take nothing with us and if we have anything to have, none will thank us.

Frugitive is still at the Pennsylvania Hospital, not any better. Hunt, Sharvit and Hamak are well, Boone and Fisher are all well. There is a great deal of sickness, dysentery, which has proved very fatal to children. I spoke of moving it is about a square from this on the front st.
You perceive I made a shocking mistake in writing on the wrong page and cannot remedy it, will close by saying, hope you will be careful of yourself. Write at least once a month, as I shall be to hear about your hand and also your health.
} Today evening 5 o'clock } Affectionately } Anna W. Barker

West Philadelphia, June 11, 1848.

Dear Brother

I feel ashamed, and astonished that I have not written before, but hope however you will pardon me this time and promise to do better in the future. My time has been very much engaged in preparing my lecture for a public examination. This is a great trial but has to be submitted to, as it is the order of the Board of Directors. To a person so retiring or diffident, to make so occasions a good deal of anxiety and nervous excitement, which at present I am not prepared, for not being very well, but not desist. I feel very grateful to you for the kind sympathy & proceed in your last letter. Of trying to obtain a home for us in our old days. should we live to attain old age. I hope you may be successful in all your undertakings, and live to enjoy the reward of your labors. The last time I heard from our sister they were well, all our relatives at Hock were well the last accounts I had. The last letter Aunt received from William, stated that he was far gone in consumption, he thought great recovery, it is quite possible that he is no more I have no news that would be interesting to you except I record several deaths of persons

West Chester, 24 Aug 20, 1870.

Dear Brother

I received your letter on Tuesday the 8th inst. and did not answer then as I was going to West on a visit that day. I expected Susan soon to call for me at 120th Black, and was so much hurried that I could not write, till then, had no opportunity to do so. Our cousins are all well, they busy, Aunt Ficks, and family are well, they all wish to be remembered to you, everything is going on as formerly, no change having taken place since you left that I have any knowledge of. Jacob & Theo. got and Mary Holmes are deceased. Formerly residents of West. Sister Maria, was at Boone all the time I was there, she is not very well, but not confined to her bed. Her condition which was naturally very strong, so completely wrecked by her impudence in performing more than her strength would guarantee. Maria is well as usual, I have heard from our brother and feel sorry, and reluctant & uneasy the sad intelligence. I have understood that he has actually become intemperate, I would much rather have heard of his death. How lamentably true, the harvest evil committed you once knew, namely Jacob Hoffman a few weeks ago, lately Charles Judson and Doctor Brookfield. I have no news from Washington I do not remember whether I told you that George Edmunds, was injured by falling under the cars so that his arm had to be taken off at the Hospital, he has returned home but a short time since, having been there several months.

Aunt Thelma and Hannah are well and wish to be remembered to you. Augustus has been at home for two months, but has become so very troublesome he will have to be sent back to the Hospital.

There is a great deal of building going on at present. The family I heard with is building close by where we live, the Ohio Convention has been held the past week in Philadelphia, & nominated a candidate for the Presidency. I believe have taken up Sen. Taylor Democrats, David Gales. I simply repeat this as current news of the day, think as soon as convenient, and the full assurance that I will be prompt in answering your letter in future.

Very Affectionately
Anna W. Doubleday

and of associations corrupt our hearts and taint us so that we slide almost inperceptibly into their habits, before we are aware of it. I feel completely discouraged and cast down when I reflect how he is fallen, and consequently what his end will be if he persists in his present course.
About Thuret and Starnal are well and well to be remembered to you, Augustus, has been at home for several months, without any change for the better. I should like very much if it was in my power to visit you some more cheering intelligence, but cannot at present.
I feel heavy to hear you have not been well. I have learned to sympathize with those who suffer either in body or mind, having experienced so much of both. I visited Mrs.
Sabney a short time since she was well, she is not married yet.
I have been dead of chills for a year, and feel very well at present, for which I feel very grateful.
Our vacation ends this week, when I shall have to return to my arduous duties. They are heavy and severe. I often feel like giving up my situation, my responsibility being so very great. Charles, endeavor to edify all well, particularly, the interesting part, so that if we never meet in this world we may meet in Heaven, where all our troubles and trials will have an end and where we can be free from sorrow and pain. I hope this will be our happy lot.

Farewell

Yours affectionately sister
Anna W. Sucker